

CONTENTS

I. UNIVERSAL DOCTRINES THROUGH PARTICULAR LOOKING-GLASSES: ECHOES, INFLUENCES, AFFINITIES

Alexandru Surdu , Kantian echoes in the Romanian culture .....	11
Ionuț Isac , „If this thinker could have acquired a systematic philosophical education...” The self-taught philosopher Vasile Conta interpreted by Professor Nicolae Bagdasar .....	15
Ion Dur , Young Vasile Băncilă and Arthur Schopenhauer: On ethics, sociology and politics .....	32
Liviu Bordaș , The reception and image of Yoga in Romanian lexicography (I) .....	51
Claudiu Baci , Noica and Whitehead: Conceptual affinities .....	78
Constantin Stroe , Dimitrie C. Nădejde on the psychological motivation of forming and functioning of the moral laws of individual behaviour and social order .....	87
Mihai Popa , Being and living: The need for metaphysics in Nae Ionescu’s view .....	107

II. MIND–BODY RELATIONSHIP

Bogdan Rusu , Philosophical psychology and the mind–body problem at the beginning of the 19th century (1800–1830) .....	119
Mona Mamulea , Mind as an object of experiment and the materialist philosophy. The standpoint of Maiorescu .....	150
Andrei Posea , Points of convergence between Vasile Conta, C. Rădulescu-Motru and Mircea Florian: Mind–body relationship .....	163

DOSSIER: A MIND–BODY CONTROVERSY ON PETROVICI’S DOCTORAL THESIS

Introductory note [M. M.] .....	183
Note on the present edition .....	185
G. Bogdan-Duică , The first doctoral thesis in philosophy defended in Romania .....	187
Ioan Petrovici , Mind and body (I) .....	191
Ioan Petrovici , Mind and body (II) .....	196
G. Bogdan Duică , The first doctoral thesis in philosophy defended in Romania (A last word) .....	202
Mind–body relationship in Romanian philosophy (anthology by Titus Lates ) .....	211

III. REFERENCES

The history of Romanian philosophy in 2019 (a bibliography by Titus Lates ) .....	219
---	-----