

CONTENTS

I. KANT 300

Bogdan Rusu , “Critical philosophy” in Transylvania (1825–1863)	11
Constantin Stroe , The Kantian “Big Bang” at “Sf. Sava” – starting moment of the modern Romanian philosophy	39
Mona Mamulea , Comments on Maiorescu’s Kantianism	50
Remus Breazu , Constantin Noica and the openings of the Critique of the Power of Judgment	69

MARGINALIA

Henrieta Șerban , On the Kantianism of Lucian Blaga and the limits of the intellect	83
Mihai Popa , On the concept of dogma in Lucian Blaga	91

RESTITUIRI

Dumitru Isac , Several notes on Kant (ed. Ionuț Isac)	103
Titus Lates , A translator of Kant: Mihail Canianu (trad. Mihail Canianu ; ed. Titus Lates)	122
Immanuel Kant , On the disagreement between morality and politics with respect to perpetual peace	128

II. MATERIA HISTORICA

Liviu Bordaș , Mircea Eliade and the captives of politics: The beginnings of the felix culpa case (I)	139
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

III. BIBLIOGRAPHY

The history of Romanian philosophy in 2023 (Bibliography by Titus Lates)	221
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----